EMERALD ISLE IMMIGRATION CENTER'S 21st ANNIVERSARY HONOREES

Hon .Vincent Gentile

Councilman 43rd District - Brooklyn

Councilman Vincent J. Gentile was born and raised in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn and currently lives in Dyker Heights. He is a proud product of New York City's public schools, having graduated from PS 170, McKinley Junior High School and Fort Hamilton High School. He earned an undergraduate degree in Government from Cornell University and a law degree from Fordham University.

In March 2003, Vincent Gentile was elected Councilman of the 43rd District, which includes Bay Ridge, Dyker Heights, Bath Beach and parts of Benson Hurst. He was re-elected to a four-year term in 2005. In 2008, Councilman Gentile designated $25,000 of Immigrant Opportunities Initiative (IOI) funding to the Emerald Isle Immigration Center; in 2009, the center received an additional $25,000.

Maurice McGrath

Business Representative and Executive Delegate, Local 608, District Council of Carpenters

Maurice McGrath (Cavan and Cork) is a Business Representative and executive delegate to the District Council of Carpenters. He began his career at local 608 29 years ago and became an organizer for 3 years prior to rising to his present position, which he has held for 18 years. He works out of The Bronx office of 608, on Katonah Ave., across from the EIIC office. His roots are very important to him and he hasn't ventured far: he was born, raised, lives and works in The Bronx. A 1976 graduate of Cardinal Hayes High School, Maurice attended college at Cornell's School of Industrial and Labor Relations and the Xavier Institute of Labor. Married for 24 years to his beautiful wife Bette (herself a retired NYC school teacher), they have two sons both away at college.

Dr. Geraldine M. Chapey

Professor at CUNY, Executive Director of Trinity Services, Inc., and EIIC Board Member

Dr. Geraldine M. Chapey is proud of her Irish heritage. On the paternal side her family hails from County Mayo. On the maternal side her family hails from County Louth. Dr. Chapey is very active in Irish circles including serving on the Board of Directors of the Emerald Isle Immigration Center and on the Board of Directors of the Queens County Saint Patrick's Day and Cultural Committee.

Dr. Chapey earned a doctorate in management and labor relations at Rutgers University, an M.A. from T. C. Columbia University and a B.A. from St. John's University. She is a tenured, full professor of psychology at Kingsborough Community College/CUNY. Dr. Chapey is the founder and executive director of Trinity Services Inc. Trinity Services is a comprehensive, community-based program designed for older citizens in southwest Queens. It provides services for seniors who live in a geographically isolated area. Trinity sponsors two programs: (1) a transportation program, and (2) an educational/recreational program. The Trinity programs serve over 2000 people.
